

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

As I was told the FCC was built on the standard that they would give the public the chance to view a myriad of opinions, sources, and ideas through the media. But over the past years these varied and umpteen amounts of opinions have waned greatly. The corporate world, including such large media conglomerates as NBC, ABC, and FOX have already begun to have a monopoly on ideas shown to the public. As if these corporate media giants didn't already have enough power by giving them increased powers by letting laws like the Duopoly Rule, Dual Network Rule, and Local Radio Ownership Rule go. You will then began the destroying of the ideals that create this so called democracy we live in.
